pointment. The judge had reaffirmed his ruling about Albany graft, concerning which the Colonel was eager to testify. No questions could be asked about that, therefore. He was not even allowed to tell of something he knows about Barnes and "Paddy McCabe, which he has been trying to recount to the jury for two weeks.

He sat back and answered a few questions about party candidates in the last campaign in which he figured. He almost forgot to tell about the progressives at all. He was getting set for the cross examination which he supposed Mr. Ives was preparing.

But the cross examination never came. Ives perhaps divining that the Colonel had planned to put over another speech or two, waived his final chance at the enemy, and the Colonel, obviously disappointed, resumed his seat at the table.

Journal Paying Pious.

Determined to make as much progress as possible the justice, who has been liberal in his rulings, tightened up today and held proceedings down to narrow limits.

VEGETABLES TO DROP IN PRICES

Northward Move of Summer Makes Gardens Productive for Consumers.

CORN-FED BEEF SCARCE

Sweet Potatoes Give Way to Southern Yams and Spanish Onions Are Sold But Little.

Two vegetables disappeared from most of the markets of Washington during the last week. Sweet potatoes have been replaced largely by Southern yams, selling for 30 cents a quarter peck. Spanish onions are being sold by only a few dealers. They are quoted at 5 cents each.

Supplies of produce during the week were good and prices were firm, but few changes being announced. Asparagus dropped from 35 cents a bunch to 10 and 25 cents. Cucumbers are high being quoted, as during the winter, at 15 cents each.

It is expected figures on produce will decrease considerably within a few days. The retail price has not been changed. In the South and the season is moving rapidly northward. Some truck farms in Virginia are sending produce to Washington markets.

Butchers announce a scarcity of corn-fed beef, the figure advancing $1 a hundred pounds in wholesale quantities. The retail price has not been changed. Lamb also is being received in smaller shipments, but the quotation in retail markets is about the same.

Other meat commodities are being shipped in average allotments. Steaks are quoted at from 18 to 25 cents a pound. Mutton ranges in price from 12 to 25 cents a pound, for stewing purposes, to 16 and 18 for roasts. Lamb chops are quoted at 25 to 45 cents a pound.

Butter is selling at 35 cents a pound for medium grades and 40 cents for the best creamery products. Eggs are quoted at 25 to 30 cents a dozen.

Prices on Foodstuffs.
